

The Week Ahead
Morgantown High School
Week of January 10, 2021

Welcome to the overall learning guide to Morgantown High School. A new Edition will be updated weekly to alert our students and families on what to expect for the upcoming week at MHS.

We continue with remote learning this week. Please watch for important communication from MHS on learning updates for the second semester that should be released this week. All families must login to Schoology to confirm first semester grades for your students. The first semester ends on January 19, 2021.

Impact on Morgantown High School

- MHS will continue with remote instruction for the rest of the semester.
- MHS will be running a full eight period class schedule on Fridays with all students logging in remotely.
- Any full time student who is in remote learning can continue to request lunch from the school by using the following link (Click here). Students in the building can bring their own lunch or one will be provided to them.

ACT/SAT Prep Class
The final session of the ACT/SAT Prep Class for this school year will be held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school from January 19-February 24. As long as Monongalia County Schools is offering in-person learning, students have the option of attending the class in-person or virtually; if school is being held remotely, all students will attend the class virtually. This will be the last class before the school day SAT that is offered to juniors each April. To get more information and to register for the class, please visit https://mohigans.mono.k12.wv.us/docs/building/2/act%20prep%20class%20(2020-2021%20flyer).pdf?id=9404 .
